

Galleria degli Uffizi Museum, Florence

Architect: Antonio Godoli
Photographer: Thomas Mayer
Project location: Florence

The Florentine museum, with works of painting and sculpture from the Antiquity to Late Baroque, is one of the best-known museums in the world. Be it Botticelli's Birth of Venus or Cranach's Portrait of Martin Luther, the masterpieces displayed in the Uffizi draw more than 1.5 million visitors through its doors each year.

