

Arctic compound at the Hagenbeck Zoo, Hamburg

Architect: Geising & Böker GmbH, Hamburg
Photographer: Frieder Blickle
Project location: Hamburg

Whilst the Walrus Nesityka circles her new territory elegantly and weightlessly in the Arctic compound near Hagenbeck, visitors enjoy extraordinary views into the 7m deep basin thanks to panorama windows. Elegant, efficient and robust Grasshopper LED spotlights illuminate the associated, highly informative exhibition.

