

Architect: Guy Stansfeld Architects Limited, London
Photographer: Edgar Zippel, Berlin
Project location: Stockholm

The Rug Company Showroom

Unusual materials and weaving methods coupled with the cooperation with top designers turn carpets from The Rug Company into impressively unique floor coverings.

The showroom in Stockholm is illuminated by different models of the Quadra range as well as Optec spotlights. Carpets hung on the walls are effectively presented using vertical lighting produced by the wallwashers. Mounted on tracks, the Optec spotlights provide flexible light accents on the carpets stacked in the middle of the room.

