

Architect: Alain Marguerit
Lighting designer: LEA Fachard
Photographer: Thomas Mayer
Project location: Nîmes

Nîmes Esplanade

The city of Nîmes in the south of France is known worldwide for its numerous structures dating back to Roman times. Illuminated by ERCO, the Esplanade in the heart of Nîmes is a huge city square located between the Roman Arena and the Sainte Perpétue church - and proves a popular meeting place for Nîmes' residents, particularly in the summer months.

