

St. Catharine's Church, Hamburg

Architect: Helmut Riemann Architekten
Lighting designer: Peter Andres, Beratende Ingenieure für Lichtplanung
Photographer: Frieder Blickle
Project location: Hamburg

A Gothic structure, the St. Catharine's main church is one of the best-known churches in Hamburg. The three-nave building not far from the Zollkanal was fitted with ERCO LED luminaires to welcome visitors into a bright and friendly house of prayer.

